Jeffersonian Club to go to Toledo Tu Hundred Strong--A Great Occasion Promised Monday Night.

For some time past the Toledo de crats have advertised a big rally for next Monday evening in honor of Hon, Allen O. Meyers, of Ohio, and Hon. Patrick Collins, of Boston, who are to speak there. The republicans changed their Blaine reception from this evening to Monday evening. This brings about a collision of processions which the demorats propose to make he best of and will get up a monster demonstration. The offersoulan club has been invited and headed by the city band will attend 200 strong. The round trip will cost but $1.50 and the tickets are good on regular train leaving Fort Wayne next Monday at 1.25 p. m., or special which will leave at 3.15 p. m., arriving at Toledo at 5 p. m., and 6.30 p. m. Returning, tickets are good on special which will leave Toledo at about 11 p. m. and on regular train which leaves Toledo at 12.05 midnight, on which there is chair car and sleeper. Encouraging Reports From Every State Which Should Spur the Democracy to Greater Efforts.

Cleveland's Election Regarded a Certainty if the Lines of Battle do Not Waver.

Still Another Set of Presidential Candi dates Handed Out for Slaughter by a Society.

Washington, Sept. 27.—Phil. B.
Thomson, jr., returned to town yesterday from a short trip to New York and gave to a correspondent his views of the political situation as gathered from his opportunity to inform himself there.

"I was at the democratic headquarters

"I was at the democratic headquarters frequently," he said, "and met a good many prominent politicians. New York many prominent politicians. New York is regarded as the pivotal state, and the general impression is that Clevoland will carry it. The out-look, indeed, is far, better for success there than it was in 1876. A thorough organization has been effected, and the trouble with Tammany has been virtually beslet. There are, a few kinker like ly healed. There are a few kickers like Grady, but they can do no harm. The New York Herald has so thoroughly exposed Blaine's foreign policy that the Irish who were once thought to be affected have all come back to the demoratic party, the only resting place for that class of foreigners since the party killed know-nothingism in 1856. Tunnany is now in perfect accord with the party, and our disaffection is almost nothing. Cleveland will get not less than 40,000 majority in New York."

"What effect will this have on the race?"

"What effect will this have on the race?"

New Jersey is nearly always safely democratic. Its status is beyond a doubt and with Connectiont, of which we feel assured, gives us victory. I met Senator McDonald, and he has not a shadow of doubt about Indians. As to Illinois, Pennsylvania and Michigan, we are making a splendid flight in all of these states, and will at least be able to keep the republicans there busy during the whole of the campaign."

"What about Ohio?"

"Our leaders do not expect to carry Ohio in October. The republicans feel that Ohio is their pivotal state, and all that a lavish expenditure of an unlimited corruption fund can do will be accomplished. If they should lose Ohio they are broken and will have no time to rally, while if they win they will have no more cause for rejoicing than we will have when we carry West Virginia at the same time."

same time."

A VERY IMPORTANT MATTER.

ALBANY, Sept. 27.—Chairman Draper of the republican state executive committee, denies authoritatively any disagreement between the New York an Ohio state committees concerning the expense of the special train conveying Blaine from Buffalo to Cleveland. The best of feeling existed between the two organizations.

Wm. P. Ellsworth, of Pennsylvania, nd Charles H. Walteman, of New York, are been declared the nominees of the lational Council of the American Polit-cat Alliance.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Rev. Fathe Stake, of Babylon, Long Island, has be gun suit against the Brooklyn Eagle for $10,000 damages for defamation of character.

The official decision in the Boyle case did not come this atternoon, but the counsel for Boyle have positive information that the case was reversed because Judge Hench erred in refusing to allow the detendant to testify that shortly before Casey was shot he told Boyle he had shot a man in Springfield, Ill., and stabled another man at Paris, Ill. TRAMP! TRAMP! THE UNKEMPT HORDES OF IRISH CATHOLICS ARE MARCH ING TO INDIANAPOLIS.

of that city Sept, 21, 1883:

"If anyone wishes to discuss the question whether patriotism exists, let him place an Englishman in any part of the world, in theremotest corner of the globe, and begin the strains of God Save the Queen, and he is ready for anything.

A BETTER scheme to raise money than by begging it would be for Blaine to car and charge a small admission fee. There are enough attractions in the pageant to draw largely.

THE Associated Press report of the Columbus, Ohio, grand democratic mass meeting put the number at from 10,000 to 15,000 present. The Cincinnati Enquirer, which republicans call a republican sheet, says there were from 60,000 to 70,000 persons in attendance. Quite a BLAINE'S most ardent supporters may be indicated by the sample lot now on exhibition with him. Powell Clayton, of Arkansas, one of the well known cials in the days of reconstruction, is the chaperon of Logan in Ohio and S. B. Elkins is managing the western tour of the Blaine circus.

THE attention of the people is called to the fact that Mr. Dudley, commissioner of pensions, is out in Ohio running the campaign and expects later to come to the same time drawing his salary of $5,000 per year for discharging the duties - Ind. of his office. What further proof of corruption and dishonesty is needed.

> IT seems that all is not harmony in the young men's republican club of Brooklyn. The club, the other night, passed resolutions supporting Blaine, whereupon the president, W. H. JAY GOULD has promised to give $100,000 to be used to carry Ohio for the republicans in October. The monopolists all over the country are contributing to the republican corruption fund. They know if Cleveland should be elected that jobbery and theft in all departments of discs the government will cease and that not a fat steal will go into their pockets during the whole of his administration. Blaine is their man. They know him and know that they can use him. But the money kings are powerless when the laboring men, the farmers and mechanics rise up in their might and demand that honest

PROF. S. WOOD, of Kingston, N. Y., an old republican and personally ac-quainted with many prominent men throughout the country, has written a letter for publication declaring, in answer to numerous queries as to what course he intended to pursue in the coming election, that he will vote for and support Cleveland in every way as and support clerenald, in early way as against Blaine. He denounces in seath-ing terms the political record of the lat-ter. Wood's father held's high military commission under Gov. DeWitt Clinton. It is rumored that Mr. Wood will make several speeches for Cleveland.

THE Gazette continues its piteous apeals to workingmen, again to vote for higher protection and insists that the people are presperous. It is remarka-ble that the laboring men of this country prosperous when an army of 700,000 of them are now demanding labor and means to keep them from suffering this winter, and when those who have work are receiving in many instances, as low as 81 cents per day for their labor. We have had a high protective tariff and it is true there has been prosperity but the good results have been reaped by a few and the many have been left at the mercy of corporations and syndicates, such as Blaine has been connected with, where wages has been reduced to a starving point. It would be more interesting for the Gazette to tell the workingmen of this country how they are expected to prosper on the beggarly salary of 81 cents per day than to seek to mislead them in regard to the democratic position. They have been mislead too long already.

BLAINE HIPPODBOMING.

The outlook for democratic success at this time is sufficient to encourage every democrat and every man opposed to s continuation of republican power under such a representative as Blaine. Never has the skies been brighter than now and never have we had the encourage ment and the assistance we have now The truth of this is apparent from the fact that Blaine has b en forced to start out on a tour through doubtful states, as he considers them, hoping to attract the crowds to him by his magnetic presence, Standing in full view of the people with all the evidences of crime resting upon him, which are by this time known to every reader of a democratic or indelent newspaper, the tattooed m Mulligan fame displays a hardened cheek which seems to have lost all sense of shame. And shall this display of brazen-ry be not rebuked? Will not the people of this country, whose desire for pure government is greater than for the success of party, administer a severe re-buke to this silent act of a man proclaiming his contempt for the charges made against his integrity and honor?

Democrats need have no fear that Mr. Blaine is gaining vantage ground in this hippodroming tour. It is only an admission of the strength of the party he is compelled to meet. Other presidential candidates have done the same thing and everyone of them was covered over with ballots the day of election come. have advanced our lines and planted the artillery where it has done effective ser-vice. The battle has begun and every man who voted for Tilden and reform nd who witnessed the perpetration of the monstrous fraud which deprived him of the presidency, and who now desires to rebuke that wrong; every man who desires to again elevate Thomas A. Hendricks to the vice presidency, and to see him occupy that position; every man who belie es in democratic principles. who has labored for their upbuilding and has prided himself in their purposes; every man who desires to rebuke official uption and who believes the books of the departments should be inspected. and every man whose desire is for pure government above all party feeling and the desire for mere party success, whose love for country is deeper rooted than for party, in order to accomplish his purpose, must not falter at this point but must march onward, working and fighting with might and main for the restoration of this government to this state for the same purpose, and is at its old days of prosperity. And when in November then the solid column, invincible in its righteous purposes will move as in one phalanx from the Atlantic to the Pacific and will plant the flag of victory on every ballot box. Let every man do his duty, be watchful, be vigi-

Colonel Gray was accosted by an Indianapolis News reporter yesterday morning. He said: "I am more than satisfied with the outlook; Ido not appre hend any danger during the last week of the campaign. The independent vote can not be purchased, neither can the German one, and we have got both of these pretty solidly. Importation cannot be practiced successfully."

In response to an inquiry as to what effect the story of his connection with a know-nothing lodge in Ohio had on his know-nothing longe in the nation has on his compaign, he said: "I am like Cleve-land. I tell the truth. I was not in Ohio at the time when the papers charge that I was director of a Know-nothing lodge. I was in Indiana and was making speeches for Fremont. I never knew a campaign in which falsehood was so constantly employed as an argument. They began by charging that I was president of a bogus insurance company. It was at once denied by republicans in my own city. Neverthe publicans in my own city. Nevertheless, the republican papers keep on printing the story. I went to the editor of one of them who is a personal friend and asked him why he continued to publish a statement which he knew to be false. He just laughed at me, and said, 'Why, colonel, I will give you space to deny it in my columns.' This is the rub to the thing. They desire to entangle me in a newspaper controversy, so as to embarrass paper controversy, so as to embarrass aggressive movements. I am too old a politician for that."

A SHOPMAN'S VIEWS.

PITTEBUEG RAILEOAD SHOPS,
FORT WAYNE, Indiana,
September 26, 1884.)
To the Editor of The Sentinel:

I have been a machinist and have worked at that trade for nearly thirtyfive years. I have always been a republican and never voted any other ticket than that in all my life. I have been a constant reader of the Gazette for many years and it says in its issue of to-day: "Millions of goods are ready to ship over years and it says in its issue of to-day:

"Millions of goods are ready to ship over and Mr. Lowry asks them to come."
The wages of the laboring men and mechanics are as low now as they have been at any time in this country during they past thirty years, but everything we buy, either in the way of food or clothing, is from 50 to 100 per cent, higher than from 1854 to 1860. This is the direct result of the protective tariff. Men are working in these shops to-day, and in all the other mechanical shops in this city, for from eighty to ninety cents a day. Out of this they must pay house rent and keep a family. Any mechanic or laboring man who will vote for a continuation of the -protective tariff ought to starve.
Why is it that all the rich corporations and manufacturers are in favor of a high tariff? Because it permits them to pay a minimum in price for labor and get a maximum price for their merchandise.
Any laboring man who will vote for protection is certainly an idiot. If they will think for a moment and see who it is that advocates this doctrine and then consider the present scale of wages one moment's reflection will convince them that the tariff injures only the poor man.
Wages cannot and will not get any lower, that which the isborers purchase must
and will as soon as protection is removed.
For one I am going to vote for a change.
It cannot make things worse.

Supreme Court Recerses the Jury De-Talk With the Culprit-- "The Sentinels" Prediction

For the past week the action of the upreme court on the case of Billy Boyle was the topic of conversation and attorneys and reporters were besieged by anxious people. The Sentinel, with characteristic enterprise, told its re last Wednesday that the case would be reversed and this morning the following telegram to Messrs. Colerick and Oppen sustained the prediction of Tm

SENTINEL:

Armed with this information THE SEN INEL representative proceeded to the iail with Rev. Father Brammer, Mr. Boyle's spiritual adviser. Mrs. Will Schiefer conveyed the glad news to Boyle, who was allowed to step into the jail reception room to meet the clergy-man and religious reporter of The Sen-

I suppose yet are grate of the supreme court, ventured the reporter.

"I should say I was," replied Boyle.
"A vision of the gallows and meditations on death are not very cheering to a fellowhere in a strange country without friends."

Father Brammer then chatted with Boyle, who promised to continue his religious devotions and be a better man no matter what the next sentence will be. Mr. Boyle wept with gratitude when The Bearinger reporter mentioned the names of his attorneys, and the prisoner paid them a very high compliment. Boyle was asked as to his parents and tearfully replied: "They know nothing of my crime and I don't desire to break their old hearts by telling them. I will not say who they are."

Rather Brammar was much pleased at Father Brammer was much pleased at the action of the supreme court, as was also Sheriff Schiefer and his family. In fact the people, generally agree that the Teversal of the case was just as a death penalty was entirely too severe for the crime he is convicted of, and the particulars of which are familiar to all readers. LAKE TOWNSHIP.

Inneparably Roulded in Support of Oleveland and Hendricks--

A Rousing Meeting

Probably the most successful work done, or that will be done, in Allen county politics was the meeting at Arcola hast night. The general rumor abroad for the past week among the knowing ones was that the democratic party in Lake township was badly split up. Some days ago one Scandal or Scanlan, a Chicago resi dent, was billed to address the Irish men in old Lake at Arcola. Much to the dire destruction of the harangue the democrats billed Judge Edward O'Rourke to address the same people on the same night. He undoubtedly addressed all the people of that thriving hamlet as the hall was incapable to accommodate the thirsty throng after democratic prin-ciples. The Irish, French, German and Americans in one accord voiced the sen-timents of Judge O'Rourke. Will Sham-baugh made a neat speech, in which he showed up the tattooed knight.

The Scanlan republican meeting was rather previous and sparse in numbers A gang of High school urchins looked into the open end of a beer bottle and became loud and boisterous. They were promptly squelched and they started home. The statement in the Gazette that Jim MaDonald brother of the late. that Jim McDonald, brother of the late Sam McDonald, was thrown in the gut-ter is false. Instead Jim cooled off the whole republican drum corps. Old Lake will go solid for the straight democratic ticket.
